Dear Mark,

I would like to express my utmost gratitude to the Long Island Real Estate Group's New Generation Group for our generous gifts of $220 as well as 150 pounds of canned food.

These thoughtful contributions are enormously helpful at a time when demand for food assistance on Long Island is higher than ever. Kindly extend our thanks to everyone in your group who donated food or funds.

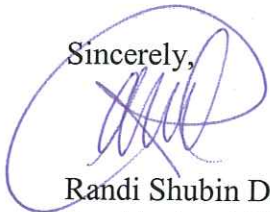

In all, our goal is to rescue and deliver enough food so that in spite of the sagging economy and surge in demand for food assistance, our network of 570 food pantries, soup kitchens, and other feeding programs need not turn people away.

Your generosity and actions help us to meet this goal. Even though our office and warehouse space is donated, we still need to keep our trucks on the road, our volunteers trained and deployed, and the immense logistics involved in moving food between hundreds of area businesses and agencies running smoothly.

We are proud that our reliance on volunteers and in-kind services allow us to devote 97 cents of every dollar contributed to our programs.

Thank you again on behalf of all of us at Island Harvest as well as the agencies and clients that receive our food. Best wishes for a joyous New Year!

Sincerely,

Randi Shubin Dresner
President and CEO
